CLASS 3 - Close Up!
A Rose is a Rose

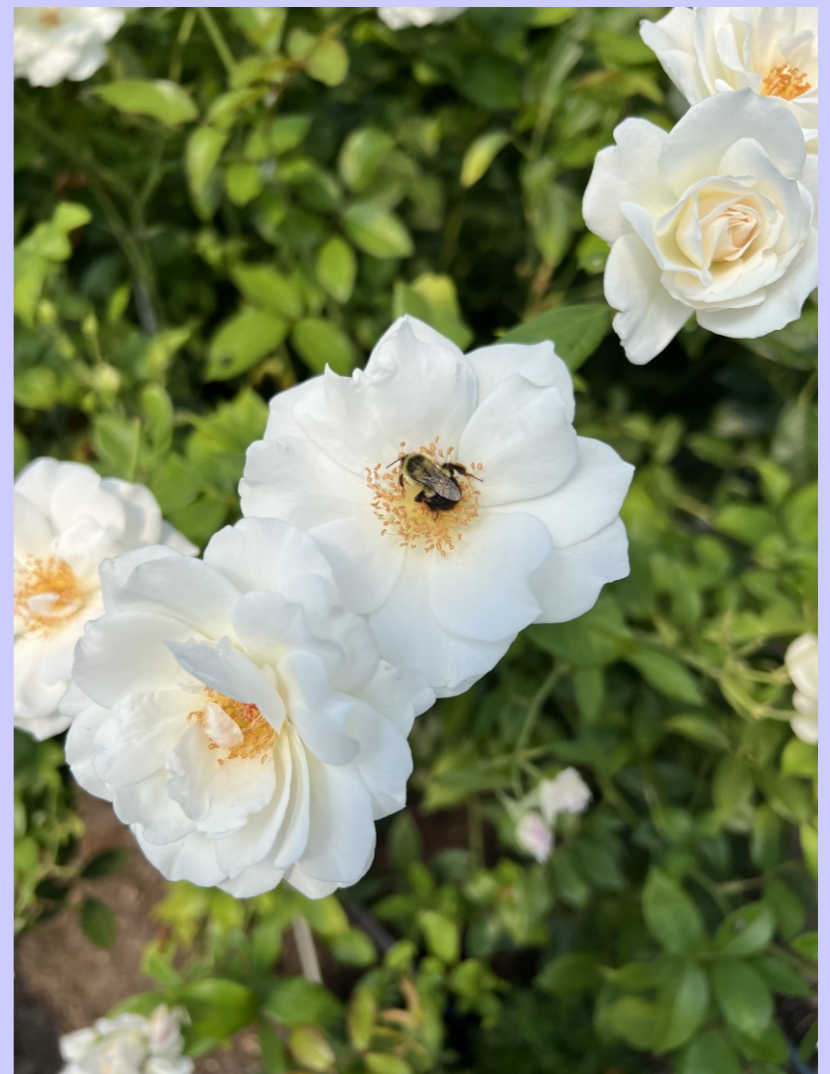

First Place + Member's Choice

CLASS 5 - Salad Display

First Place - Jennifer Johnston

Judge's Comments: The symmetry in the arrangement of this salad creates an interesting juxtaposition with the asymmetrical composition of the over-all image.

Third Place (a) + Members Choice (b) – Sharon Smith

Second Place (a) – Maxine Whelan

CLASS 6 - Winter Scene

First Place – Jennifer Johnston

Judge's Comments: The shallow depth of field really works to isolate the subject from an otherwise busy background. The fluffy snow on the branches makes this feel like the viewer has just finished watching fresh snow fall.

CLASS 7 - Year of the Dragon

Capturing the bee in mid-flight is both technically impressive and visually interesting. The shallow depth of field helps to draw the viewer to the flower the bee may land on.
